INSTANT FAITH

Most if not all of us probably live increasingly in a world where we are governed by the idea of the instant. We can have instant meals, instant e-mails, music, films and books on hand-held devices, instant antiques when we buy furniture in a 'distressed state,' and anything we wish to buy we can have instantly and pay later. Perhaps all of us expect our faith to be instant; often with low input, low cost and low maintenance. But faith is not really like that.

Like the love associated with last month's St Valentine's Day faith takes time to mature. Like love faith is tested by the knocks and blows that happen to us all. Like love, faith also deepens as the days go by, always providing that like love it receives the attention and support it needs. Faith is a relationship with Jesus Christ. As with our human relationships, our relationship with God takes time to build to become faith.

In days gone by, the time of year for spring-cleaning would now be approaching. Today we hear about this being done less and less. Perhaps it is because with modern detergents and vacuum cleaners with a variety of tools, we stay more on top of the world of dirt all year round. Another factor is that we also have better lighting in our homes. In the past the darkness of winter made it more difficult to see where all the dust was accumulating. In rural areas it would be the time of rain and mud, which would constantly be brought into the house, while in towns and cities industrial smoke and grit would find their way indoors and decorate the crevices and tops of cupboards and window ledges.

This season of Lent offers us a time to spring-clean, to reflect upon our own preoccupations and allegiances of faith.

Indeed the word Lent actually comes from an old English word which translates as springtime, reminding us of new life. Lent is perhaps a chance for us to have time to give concentrated and careful thought to the personal self-discipline needed to develop our discipleship of faith to make it stronger and tough enough to withstand the demands which are placed upon it. Lent is the period when we aim to make our commitment to the Gospel more total and complete.

Just as Christians do not and never have held the monopoly on all that is good in this world, this season of Lent need not be solely for those of the Christian faith. All of us whether of faith, little or none at all benefit from times when we take stock of our lives; whether that be in our personal relationships, the communities we live in or our daily work places, this season of Lent affords us all the excuse to do just that.

As this month of March progresses, Lent gives way to Holy Week and the season of Easter, with all its hope and assurance of new life. Please be assured of a warm welcome to all the variety of services in each of our four churches at this time.

A peaceful Easter to you all.

LOCAL EXPERIENCES OF AMBULANCE SERVICES

Have you called for an ambulance recently? Share your 999 story with Healthwatch Suffolk

Healthwatch Suffolk is working with Local Healthwatch across the East of England to find out what people think of local ambulance services. It is always interested to hear of your experiences but is seeking views now because it wants to inform an upcoming Care Quality Commission (CQC) inspection of the East of England Ambulance service.

The Care Quality Commission monitors and regulates services to make sure they meet fundamental standards of quality and safety. It has a legal duty to listen to the things Local Healthwatch say about services. As your local watchdog on health and social care services, Healthwatch Suffolk is best placed to inform the work of the CQC with the experiences of local people in Suffolk.

Whether you had a good or a bad experience, it is easy to share your story. Simply visit the Healthwatch Suffolk website www.healthwatchesuffolk.co.uk where you can search for the service and leave a review, call 01449 703949 or email info@healthwatchesuffolk.co.uk.

GREAT BRITISH FISH AND CHIP SUPPER – FRIDAY 20TH MAY 2016

Want to eat Fish and Chips, while raising money for charity? Hold a fish and chip supper on Friday 20th May 2016 whilst raising awareness of spinal cord injury and supporting SIA's vital services.

You can hold a fish and chip supper in your own home, at work or hold a larger supper at your local community centre.

SIA will provide a fundraising pack containing hints and tips, recipes, invitations and donation envelopes. By inviting 8 friends and asking them to donate an additional £5.00 means you will raise at least £40.00 from your supper but we will also give you additional fundraising ideas to raise even more money for SIA.

Community Fundraising Manager, Elizabeth Wright, says, "The Fish and Chip Supper is a wonderful opportunity for a great evening with friends and family. We are also encouraging people who work to hold a Fish and Chip Lunch in their work places to raise even more funds. You may be even a local community group wanting to run a fun evening with your group.

"Operation SUMAC – the 2006 Ipswich Murders" was the title of the talk given by Karl Smith at the January meeting.

A Family Liaison Officer at the time, Mr Smith told of the grim time when the body of a young girl was discovered near Ipswich and the subsequent discoveries of four more girls' bodies around the Ipswich area.

A major police investigation was launched handling the horrific task with compassion and sensitivity. The painstaking work involved hours of searching CCTV footage and carrying out many interviews as well as coping with the world media interest. There was great relief as a suspect was arrested and taken into custody.

On a lighter note the meeting on 17th March will be "Medieval Poetry – but not as you know it"

GREAT BEALINGS

LIGHT THE LIGHTS

On 28th January for Marguerite Boughton, who would have been 90, the lights shone in remembrance. She continues to be sorely missed by Margaret, Roger and Henrietta.

Then on Feb 1st for Sara Crimp's birthday, daughter of Paddy Haywood-Smith. Sara was married at St Mary's during the Annual Bike Ride Saturday. Noting the wedding, incoming cyclists thought the table they saw was set for the wedding guests, it was in fact set for the cyclists! Seems to me that in those days the nourishment for weary cyclists was grander than it is nowadays?

Finally you may have noticed that the church lights were on from 3rd -15th February – this was for the village to remember one of its own, Andrew Keep, who aged 22 tragically died in a road accident. We offer our love and prayers to his family at this most difficult time.

Roger Roseboom 01473 735153

ST MARY'S

Much of the month of February has been overshadowed by the news of the tragic accident which took the life of 22 year old Andrew Keep from Lower Street. The circumstances of the accident had made the headlines in the EADT at the beginning of the month. This culminated, on Monday February 15th, in the funeral service, held in St Mary's. This must have been one of the most extraordinary services ever held in the church. It was also one of the most moving. Pink was the colour of remembrance, and so many of the congregation entered into the spirit of commemoration of a young, vibrant, and all-too-short life. We estimate that over 350 people attended the service, half of them seated inside, the remainder gathered together outside the church in the wintry sunshine. We owe a debt of thanks to Simon Cox and his team from St John's Church in Woodbridge for setting up screens within the church and a PA system outside to ensure that all had access to this most moving of services. A profusion of flowers and candles added to the occasion, the loving work of many friends of the family, too numerous to mention by name. It seemed that virtually the entire congregation came to gather together afterwards at the Village Hall for the wake – and further thanks to the wonderful team who provided refreshments there.

A full appreciation of Andrew will appear in next month's magazine, but, for now, let us record that the presence of so many young people at the service, many of them sharing Andrew's love of cars, was a poignant reminder both of the fragility of life and of the dangers that forever lurk along our roads. Both in the course of a television interview and at the service the family found the strength to turn a private tragedy into a public warning of those dangers. If there is consolation to be found it is in the way in which wide and diverse communities, and all generations, came together to support both one another and the Keep family in bereavement, and to share in their grief.

It was ironic that, just one week after the accident, many members of the village community came together, somewhat incongruously, to enjoy the friendship and fun of the annual Progressive Supper. But perhaps that is what communities are about – sharing both the good times and the bad times. A moment's reflection, poignantly observed, at the end of a convivial evening, summed up those two sides of life in a caring community. Andrew is now at peace in the churchyard of St Mary's, Great Bealings, the village where he started his life and wished never to leave. His grave will doubtless be a place of pilgrimage for many of those who knew and loved him.

LOOKING BACK

This is normally a quiet time of year, but the aftermath of Andrew's accident occupied hearts and minds, as so many people did their best to comfort the Keep family in bereavement and to ensure that Andrew was given a fitting send-off.

We also have to report that our latest Quinquennial inspection report reached us on the very day of the funeral. Despite our exhilaration at having completed significant repairs last year, we are further confronted with significant expenditure, primarily because parts of the roof are showing signs of acute deterioration, and need urgent attention. This will be another major challenge. The attendance at the funeral service showed the importance of having a building such as St Mary's available for such major events in the life of a village community.

LOOKING AHEAD

PCC AND ANNUAL MEETING

We have a PCC meeting at 7.30 pm on Tuesday Match 2nd. At this meeting the Annual Report will be finalised with a view to presenting it to our Annual Meeting. This Annual meeting, to which all are warmly invited, will take place after the 10.00 service on Sunday April 3rd. Refreshments will be served as normal immediately after the service, so if you cannot make the service but would like to attend the meeting please join us for refreshments just before 11.00am.

It is at the Annual Meeting that elections are held for officers and membership of the PCC for the year to come. We are always looking for new blood, so if you are prepared to help by taking on a role within the community, please contact Churchwarden, Norman Porter.

CHURCHYARD

The mild winter seems to have helped the rabbit breeding programme. Beware of the many rabbit holes and scrapings. The moles have been less active and seem to have confined their activities to nearby fields.

2016 PROGRESSIVE SUPPER – Saturday February 6th

Our annual progressive Dinner Party took place on Saturday February 6th. Almost 50 participants took part and almost all managed to make the way to the right places at the right times. We are immensely grateful to Nicky and Ben Morton-Wright for hosting the final gathering at Annesley Hall, and for ensuring that the warmth of the gathering at the final venue brought the evening to a convivial conclusion. It is now firmly established that this event takes place on the first Saturday in February, so determined participants can ensure, well in advance, that the date is kept free. Next year it will be Saturday 4th February.

THE QUEEN'S 90TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

There still seems to be uncertainty as to the form to be taken by village celebrations of The Queen's 90th birthday. Parish Councils have yet to come to any decision. We are waiting in the wings and will organize something if nothing materializes between the Parish Councils of Little and Great Bealings. Watch this space – together with other spaces!

PARISH COUNCIL

Notes of the Parish Council Meeting held on 11 February 2016

PLANNING APPLICATION

PL\0008\16 – Laying of block paved hard standing (retrospective) increase in height of the screen bund, erection of flood lighting, and temporary stockpiling of aggregate material to assist in reorganisation of stockpiling at Sinks Pit, Main Road, Kesgrave,

Residents raised concerns about the application and the applicant's future intentions for the site, in view of noise and light pollution, the impact on the environment and bats, the public footpath and previous unauthorised activities at the site. The Council noted that taken as a whole, the proposals were of benefit to nearby residents and should resolve existing problems with noise and light pollution if fully implemented. It was resolved that there was therefore no objection to the application, subject to conditions which set:

- ◆ Commencement and completion dates for the bunding works
- ◆ Commencement and completion dates for the installation of the lighting
- ◆ A period of 5 months for reducing the existing stockpile of aggregate
- ◆ That no additional processing of aggregate material was to take place at the western end of the site.
- ◆ That the whole of the permission was to be implemented, to avoid either the lighting or temporary stockpiling being undertaken without the additional height bunding.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING AND VILLAGE REVIEW

Community Action Suffolk had confirmed that it would undertake a Village Review as part of the Annual Parish Meeting to be held on Monday 14 March in Bealings Village Hall on 14 March.

The Annual Parish Meeting will commence at 7pm. Local community groups are invited to give reports on their activities over the last year - please contact the Clerk if you would like to do so.

The Village Review will follow the Annual Parish Meeting.

All parishioners are invited to attend, meet Councillors and give their ideas for the village and opportunities which could be explored.

Refreshments will be served.

Draft and approved minutes of Parish Council meetings are available on the Council's website.

PLAYFORD

ST MARY'S NEWS

The tortuous machinations of the Church of England grind on. What progress can I report this month?

Well the church roof paperwork has finally jumped the necessary hoops and been returned to us with a "yes, go ahead". We would have received permission earlier but apparently I had forgotten to enclose the requisite cheque with the application. Good try, good try. All we need now is the money to carry out the work. A small problem, no doubt.

The application for a change to the pew layout at the rear of the church along with a positional change of the font has been collated and sent in. As soon as I hear back I will send off a cheque, otherwise I will be on the naughty step for a week.

The new noticeboard area inside the church is complete all bar a few minor modifications. Success!

The new service days and times are now in full swing. Success!

So two out of four aint bad bro.

The churchyard is now looking really good with snowdrops in abundance. Next up, the daffodils and cowslips. Then its grass cutting and the whole summer cycle starts all over again.

Now, the Lime trees along the church path. Contentious or what? We have had lots of professional advice from three separate experts. We have considered:- a) complete cut down. b) Reduction by fifty per cent and c) reduction by thirty per cent. Any of the three will cost a great deal of money. Which of course we haven't got. However when all the details, facts, figures, myths, legends and personal preferences are examined, the PCC will come to a decision.

Hopefully we will not replicate the old story of 'a camel is just a racehorse designed by committee' and we will come to a just and sensible decision.

Not long to go and it will be Easter. Please note that Easter Day is 27th March and our Easter Day service is at Playford at 9 am. Get up early, come to church and then go out and enjoy yourselves. Now that doesn't sound quite right does it? OK let's start again. Get up early and start your day with an uplifting service of well-known hymns and great company. Bring as many children as you can. Borrow some if necessary, you can always return them afterwards.

BINKY AND CO.

The problem was the flying pilchard. Mrs Stickleback was concerned at the outset of the special programme, but forced it through the entertainments section of the Woodbridge Sailors Welcoming Committee. Mrs S or Indigo to her friends, that "bloody woman" to her enemies and 'BW' to Mrs Branston-Pickle the local magistrate. Well it had to be because Mrs Branston-Pickle had often sent fighting and swearing Playford punks down to the cells for a few days and therefore considered that she should set a good example even if outwardly she had a lot on common with the punks, namely the total dislike of Mrs Indigo Stickleback. But Indigo surged forward in the sure knowledge of the rightness of her cause. And so it was that the main reception for three and a half thousand American sailors was to be held in a pub. The plan was good. Its execution, less so. Or more than just less so. In fact disaster doesn't come close. Firstly there was a run on the cucumber sandwiches. Plus one pork sausage roll per sailor, perhaps, was skimpy. Which wasn't the word that Chief Petty Officer Alwen D Saltenpepper used. No siree. A few remarks similar to "aint you got no more pigs in these parts" seemed to touch a nerve with about fifty per cent of the locals that considered a quiet pint that evening was their birth right.

Additionally Dusty Miller who lived within ten feet of a two thousand head pig farm considered himself an expert in the habits of the little trotters. His advice to the allegedly "confederate throwbacks" was not repeated at the next meeting of the Parochial Church Council as the vicar was already feeling faint due to the booking of a triple wedding of second cousins. She had consulted the C of E book of who can marry who and was in such confusion that she decided that Google would know best. The results will be known in about nine months' time.

Anyway the riot at the pub was a national disgrace and it took a long time for all concerned to live it down. Hence the competition to rename the pub from The Flying Pilchard to something else. Any suggestions?

PLAYFORD CHURCH LIGHTS

8th February In memory of Professor Nigel Roome who had moved into and renovated beautifully No.2 The Courts and who sadly died recently. Although not known by many in the village as he had not fully retired and was still travelling quite extensively for work, Nigel was a huge character and immensely likeable person. The Professor is a great loss to the village.

PLEA FOR PLAYFORD

Whether or not you're a Christian
Whether or not you need God
Whether or not you feel passion
Whether or not.....it's not odd

To take our Church for granted
To see it but not be aware
To walk by and think it's forever
To ignore it and perhaps not care.

We all have one thing in common
We all choose to live in this place
We all see our Church pretty often
We're all from the human race.

Our lives are busy and laden
Our lives are precious and short
Our lives are often in turmoil
Our lives are full of 'we ought'.

We ought to help our village
We ought not to let our Church die
We ought to make a contribution
We ought to look it in the eye.

It sometimes does need money
It sometimes does need time
It sometimes does need commitment
It sometimes does need 'mine'!

Perhaps you could clean a little
Perhaps you could 'Light the Lights'
Perhaps you could arrange some flowers
Perhaps you could reach new heights!

Playford Church certainly needs us
Playford Church calls out to YOU Playford Church is precious and pleasing
Playford Church with its glorious view.

L is for Little and often
L is for Lychgate and Lights
L is for Lending a hand now
L is for Light up those nights.

A is for Always there for us
A is for Altar and Aisle
A is for Are we helping?
A is for once in Awhile.

Y is for beautiful ChurchYard
Y is for Young and old
Y is for Yes, we do care,
Y is for Your stronghold.

F is for Forward thinking
F is for Funds for the Church
F is for Friends and Family
F is for Font and Front porch.

O is for Oh! How lovely!
O is for Organ and its sound
O is for Oh! How we need you
O is for gather 'Oround'!

R is for Rolling Recovery
R is for Rector and Roof
R is for 'Are we doing enough?'
R is for Roof weatherproof.

D is for Desperately need you
D is Do or Die
D is for stand and Deliver
D is for Don't turn a blind eye.

And the moral of this silly poem
Is to wake us up in our tracks.....
To make us aware our Church needs us
And to let not this marvel be axed.

So if you have some ideas,
Let Celia or Colin be aware
Please offer what you can, even a little,
Don't let it be said you don't care.

CULPHO

ST. BOTOLPH'S CHURCH

SHINGLE STREET FOLK TRIO

This popular group, Stephen Harding, Mike Tyndale-Biscoe and Chris Pearce entertained us in true Folk fashion on the 12th February. Music based on the theme of love, and titled 'Romancing the Heart' was a prelude to Valentine's day. The Church was full to capacity (something not witnessed very often) with friends from Culpho, Ipswich, Grundisburgh and beyond, all of whom gave generously to help support the British Heart Foundation and St. Botolph's Church. Following the concert refreshments were served and a raffle held consisting of two lovely flower arrangements and an eclectic mix of 'valentine' prizes. This small wayside Church depends solely for its existence upon the generosity of those willing to support such events and this was amply demonstrated on this occasion. Grateful thanks go to the Shingle Street trio who gave freely of their time and talent to entertain us. Their repertoire of popular folk, traditional well known refrains provided something for everyone including the highly enjoyed Pam Ayres poem 'You should ask my husband' which was meaningfully read by Chris and empathized by all the ladies present! The concert raised the superb amount of £490 to be divided between the two charities. Appreciation is also offered to all those who venture out on a dark, cold evening to make the evening such a successful one.

P.C.C. MEETING FEBRUARY

KEY ISSUES

New Treasurer – Subject to approval at the Annual Parochial Church Meeting the P.C.C. approved the appointment of Churchwarden Guy Hartfall as Treasurer to St. Botolph's Church, Culpho and the change-over will take place on the 1st May, 2016. We are extremely grateful to Derek Lowther-Wilson, Adrian Melrose and Emma Knight who have looked after our interests over the past three years and for their assistance in facilitating the transition.

FLOWER ROTA

Many thanks to all those who have agreed to provide flowers throughout the year. The two services each month, held third Wednesday and third Sunday, will ensure the flowers remain fresh for both services. We are extremely appreciative for the help and support in making sure the Church looks at its best for services and visitors.

A new notice board has been approved and in the process of being manufactured.
