One of our organists Andrew Clarke celebrated the completion of the repairs of the organ at Great Bealings by giving a short talk and recital at our Harvest Festival service. Sadly we can't reproduce his wonderful playing but below we have reproduced his equally inspiring talk.

Pauline

I love the organ! I sometimes joke with my wife "if there aren't any organs in Heaven, I'm not stopping!" I'm sure there will be music of which we can only imagine. As a musician therefore, I want to thank all those in the Benefice and specifically here at Great Bealings for their commitment to the refurbishment of the organ.

As a Christian, it is my hope and prayer that the organ will not only lead and support our worship here, but that its voice will also sound out God's love, power and glory.

You may have noticed on the Sundays when the organ was out of action, all the various pipes and bits and pieces laid out across the back pews here. There are hundreds of pipes, springs and levers inside an instrument like this, and what you can actually see of the pipe work represents just a fraction of what makes up the whole instrument.

The Great Bealings organ is actually three organs in one each played by a separate keyboard or 'manual', two for the hands and one for the feet. It struck me when I was thinking about what I might play and say this morning that we can draw some lessons for ourselves from the refurbishment of the organ.

An organ is made up of many parts, each with a different function and purpose, so too we, as members of God's church, have different functions and purposes.

Some of the pipes in this organ are small enough to be held in your hand.

Others are big and imposing. Some parts are obvious, clear and visible to all, others, including interestingly enough, the most crucial, are never seen. They're hidden out of sight deep inside the organ. Some parts might seem inconsequential, but, if just one small part ceases to function, the whole instrument suffers.

So too, with us. Some have conspicuous tasks to perform in the church; other tasks might be carried out with no-one ever getting to hear. Some of us might be tempted to think, what can I do? Surely I don't matter. Or we might be tempted to leave tasks to others, to those we consider more qualified than ourselves. But don't ever think that you are not important in God's eyes, for He has something He wants you to do – indeed there are some things that only you can do. They might seem inconsequential – like some of the hidden parts of the organ – a phone call you've been meaning to make all week, a letter you never got round to replying to, a dispute that really needs settling. Just as the organ has been refurbished, there are times when we too should 'refurbish' our lives, clear out the dusty corners, repair those things that don't function as they should so that our lives are fit places to testify to God's praise and glory.

Years ago organs like this would have been pumped by hand. Nowadays, an electric blower blows air into the organ and, when the stops are pulled and the keys put down, the air gains access to the pipes. You see, an organ is no good unless it's filled with air. In the same way, we, as members of God's church are nothing without the breath of God, without the breath of His Spirit filling our lives and giving us the power and energy to function as we should.

Here is a verse from a favourite hymn of mine. Not only does it have a wonderful, majestic tune composed by Parry, but it has some terrific words too which are based on Psalm 150. This is verse 3:

'O Praise ye the Lord, all things that give sound;
Each jubilant chord re-echo around;
Loud organs, His glory forth tell in deep tone,

And, sweet harp, the story of what He has done.'

May the organ of Great Dealings tell forth all that God has done and is doing here, and speak of His glory and faithfulness to each one of us – Advice from Trading Standards at Suffolk County Council.

CHARITY BAGS

Many charities drop flyers through your door offering to collect donated clothing. However there is a worrying trend of bags being removed by unlicensed collectors who are selling on the clothes abroad.

Some bags appear to be from legitimate charities – a logo may be copied or a name used that is similar to a well-known charitable cause. It is estimated that British charities are losing around £14million per year by this sort of crime. You are encouraged to read the charity bags carefully; - signs that the people you are dealing with are not legitimate are: - a company rather than a charity number, spelling or grammar mistakes, and a mobile number rather than a land-line. If you want to check, use the following website: -

The History of Speedway in Ipswich

—Chris Louis and Peter Thorper

Hosted by Ipswich Arts Association, Chris Louis and John Thorper will give an account of the colourful history of speedway in Ipswich.

Since 1950 Speedway has been a major sport within the town, once rivalling football in the popularity stakes, and from 1969 the name Louis has been associated with this world-famous club. Discover the highs and the lows of over 60 years of the Ipswich Witches and how the sport has developed over the years.

BEALINGS PLANT SALE SATURDAY APRIL 21ST 2012

We have all been enjoying the mild and sunny autumn and our garden plants have been flowering well into end of October with the shrubs putting on a lot of growth. These conditions have not encouraged us to start winter clearing in our gardens but with the first frost this week (mid October as we write) we will be getting out the spades and forks very soon! With The Bealings Annual Plant Sale firmly in our next year's diary, now is the time to ask all our gardeners to remember to put their surplus plants into pots so they are well established for the April sale. There is still an assortment of empty pots at 7 Richards Drive should you need more pots (Tel: 01473 610219).

In recent years we have also had excellent sales of seedlings, so do garner in surplus seeds and start thinking about a schedule for producing those seedlings ready for the 21st April. Our Plant Sales have been such a success over many years now and we want the 2012 one to be even bigger and better but we do need your plants and your help so please remember us as you do your autumn clearing and digging.

We will be giving more updates nearer the time but this message is a reminder that the plant sale is definitely a must for next April!

Good gardening!!

BEALINGS WI SUPPORTING TOOLS WITH A MISSION (TWAM)

We have arranged another session for the collection of redundant sewing and knitting machines (these will be reconditioned by TWAM). TWAM also need sewing cottons, fabric, zips, buttons, knitting wool and needles. In fact, anything in the dressmaking line- this used to be known as haberdashery! We will sort and deliver to the TWAM local warehouse. Please will you help?

GREAT BEALINGS

GREAT BEALINGS

Our Indian summer and attendant drought has hopefully made winter seem a little shorter, as we enjoy sunny days late into the autumn. It may all seem something of a rural idyll, so it is all the more distressing that one Great Bealings resident was the unfortunate victim of a sneak burglary. There has been no sign so far of the miscreants having been apprehended, but the observations of other residents can only have been of help for the police. It is so important to look out for one another – and to make a mental note of anything or anyone in the village acting in an unusual or suspicious way. You never know when your observations may come in useful.

LOOKING BACK...

Working parties. Saturday 24th September
To follow up on the October report: it was wonderful to count some 20 people busying themselves with various tasks around the churchyard. A massive improvement was made, leaving the churchyard looking well cared for and ready for the Harvest Festival lunch/barbecue on the following day. Particular thanks to David Martin and Mervyn Decker who were unable to complete the trimming of the bottom hedge on the day, so returned on two or three additional occasions to complete the job. It was good also to number youngsters amongst the work force, learning the trade, and busying themselves imitating the adults. Participants finished up by tucking into a ploughman's lunch, with understandably hearty appetites.

Harvest Festival. Sunday 25th September 11-00 am.

We were treated to a beautiful recital, mid-service, by one of our resident organists, Andrew Clarke. Not only that, but Andrew also gave a commentary, explaining his love of music, and also his faith and the important role of music in that context. What he said was so uplifting that Pauline has converted it into the leading article in this edition of the Magazine. Our sincere thanks to Andrew for all the thought and musicianship that went into his presentation. A harvest lunch/barbecue followed the service, favoured by the weather. Our thanks not only to Pat Keep and Roger Roseboom for handling the barbecue, but also to all those who kindly provided salads and desserts, ensuring that healthy appetites were well satisfied. Our thanks too, once again, to all our flower arrangers who ensured that the church was full of bright autumnal colours. And we should never forget those who do the cleaning beforehand. We (maybe a typical male comment!) rarely notice when the job is done, but people notice all too soon when it is not.

FRIENDS OF GREAT BEALINGS CHURCH

Meetings are being held in the near future, planning ahead for next year. For the time being the most important date for your diaries is Saturday February 4th, the date of the annual Progressive Dinner. Most people will know that this involves providing just one course for 6/8 people, with the other courses being provided at other (mystery) venues around the village. All participants meet up at a final rendezvous, again normally unknown beforehand.

Regular participants will be sent forms via email. Those who are new to the village or who feel that they would like to see what the fuss is all about should contact Norman and Virginia Porter (01473 735565 -nhp@rillcott.co.uk)

THE TELEPHONE BOX BOOKSWAP, GREAT BEALINGS

Great Bealings Parish Council as owners of the Telephone Box in Lower Street have decided to put it to community use by developing it as our local Book Swap Box.

Please donate books you have enjoyed reading – (fiction, biography, good quality children's books, DVDs) and feel free to take a book of your choice. You can return it or bring back a different book if you prefer

If you would like to leave a short review in the notebook provided, please write the name of the book, your comments and the date (you don't have to leave your name!). Once every three months the stock will be reviewed and taken to the Oxfam Bookshop.

If you have any suggestions for the running of the Book Swap Box, please write them in the back of the notebook provided. We may want to review the organization of books once we've got started. Volunteers for helping with the running of the book exchange would be welcome

To get the exchange started, if you have books to donate, please phone me and I will collect them from you. From December onwards, please bring your books straight to the telephone box.

Thanks — and happy reading!

LITTLE BEALINGS

LET THERE BE LIGHT

On Saturday, September 24th, John Theodosius, late of Camelot, Beacon Lane was lovingly remembered by light on the second anniversary of his passing.

Monday October 3rd, was a good day for James Springthorpe of The Old Rectory, Holly Lane, celebrating his 14th birthday.

The lights were sponsored on Monday October 10th by David Price of 6, Michael's Mount. "This is to commemorate my youngest brother's recent death following transplant surgery and coincides with a memorial service I will be attending in Tenerife on that day. He had made Tenerife his home about 15 years ago. Alan Roy Price 2.6.50 – 20.5.11"

It is such a simple procedure; £5 note or cheque payable to Little Bealings PCC and our loved, ancient church will be bathed in light to honour a past, present or future special date. It is a very special act remembering and it will help to preserve All Saints for this generation and others to come.

HAPPY 90TH ANNIVERSARY TO THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

This year the Poppy Appeal takes place between 29 October and Remembrance Sunday on 13 November. I am endeavouring to arrange a house-to-house collection in Little Bealings. Thanks to those who have volunteered to help and also in anticipation of your support for the Appeal.

LITTLE BEALINGS PARISH COUNCIL

Notes from the Little Bealings Parish Council Meeting held on 12 October 2011

NEW PARISH COUNCILLOR

Barnaby Rufford was co-opted to fill the vacancy on the Parish Council.

PLANNING

National Planning Policy Framework

A response to the government consultation on the draft National Planning Policy Framework was agreed, expressing the Council's strong disagreement with proposals which did not offer sufficient protection to the countryside and which proposed replacing current Planning Policy Statements and Guidance Notes with one document and 'a presumption in favour of sustainable development'. If the Framework was implemented, there would be a need to consider Neighbourhood Planning for the parish to put local polices in place, as provided for by proposals in the Localism Bill.

Applications

C/11/1780 – Firecrest Nursery, Hall Road – Erection of Packing and Plant Preparation Shed

It was noted that SCDC had approved this application.

C/11/2232 – Blewbury, Playford Raod – Erection of first floor extension, one and a half storey rear extension and detached cart lodge/garage.

There was no objection to this proposed development.

EAST ANGLIAN OFFSHORE WIND FARM

Mrs Wilson and Mr Carr had attended a presentation by ScottishPower Renewables: the proposal involved bringing electricity generated off shore to the existing Bramford electricity substation by underground cabling. The search area for the cabling corridor included Little Bealings, with one proposed route running from Great Bealings under the River Lark, passing north of the Village Hall and across Holly Lane to Playford. More information is available at www.eastangliawind.com and potentially affected residents are being contacted by a survey company, Freedom. There would be further consideration of a response at the next Parish Council meeting.

REVIEW OF ROAD NAMES BY SCDC

A response to SCDC was agreed, highlighting various anomalies and points raised by residents. SCDC would be asked to consult directly with affected residents and landowners before any changes were agreed.

DATE OF NEXT MEETING

The next meeting of the Parish Council will be on Monday 7 November. The meeting will start at 7.30pm and be held in the Village Hall Committee Room. During the first 15 minutes of all Council meetings the public are welcome to raise any matters of concern with Councillors. The public may also speak for a maximum of 3 minutes on any item on the Agenda at the beginning of that item.

PLAYFORD

PARISH COUNCIL

Notes from the Playford Parish Council Meeting held on 5th October 2011

PLANNING APPLICATIONS:-

C/11/2040

Bransons College, Bransons Lane, Playford, IP6 9DN

Erection of two dwellings (submission of reserved matters under outline planning permission C10/0131)

Mr & Mrs John Beech, the owners of Bransons College were in attendance and answered questions about the proposed development. At the end of the question and answer session Councillors unanimously agreed to support the application and write to SCDC informing them of their decision.

C/11/2099

Playford Mount, Playford, IP13 6PH
Alterations and extensions to facilitate conversion of outbuilding to annexe (existing modern stables to be demolished)

C/11/2097

Playford Mount, Playford, IP13 6PH
Resiting of existing stables

Mrs Judith Shelley, the owner of Playford Mount was in attendance and was asked to outline her plans for the house. Once again after a question and answer session Councillors agreed to support the application and inform SCDC of this.

DRAFT NATIONAL PLANNING POLICY FRAMEWORK

The Chairman reported back from the SCDC meeting he had attended on the DNPPF. At that meeting SCDC gave reassurances that the DNPPF is designed so that local planning authorities will have more control on what development takes place by withdrawing inappropriate national planning regulations. SCDC confirmed that the DNPPF was designed to provide protection against wholesale, inappropriate planning. SCDC invited Parish Councils to contribute to the consultation response on the proposals, especially to seek a clearer definition of "sustainable development". Playford Parish Council resolved to contribute to SCDC's consultation in addition to responding to the Government's consultation directly.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Mrs Joan Metcalfe was elected as Vice Chairman.

FIREWORK PARTIES

Our attention has been drawn to considerable distress caused to one family's animals last year by a firework display

Whilst we do not wish to inhibit people's enjoyment especially on and around Guy Fawkes night we would suggest giving notice especially to close neighbours and, if advised of concerns, limit duration or avoid loud fireworks and possibly substitute RSPCA silent fireworks.

Harvest weekend

There is perhaps no better celebration of thanks than that witnessed by the Harvest Service and the sharing of food with friends. We were blessed with both during the Harvest weekend. The Church was beautifully decorated with produce of every kind and the food donated for the Harvest supper equally resplendent. The weekend proved to be very successful and most enjoyable. On Sunday we were pleased to welcome the Benefice Choir to the service and it was a perfect day to commemorate such an important date in the Church Calendar. Our grateful thanks go to everyone who helped make the occasion such a memorable one

P.C.C. Meeting

The re-scheduled P.C.C. meeting will take place at 5 p.m. on Wednesday 2nd November in the Church.
