I have just spent some time in Cambridge on Granny duty. My four-year-old grandson who has just started school needed collecting in the middle of town at 3.15pm. It was a military exercise to collect his sister from nursery, catch the bus complete with pushchair, toddler and tasty snacks into town. Once there we followed a stream of mums and pushchairs past shops and university buildings to a small corner of Cambridge where his overcrowded primary school was situated. Here I fought my way through a barrage of mums who flooded through the single school gate when it was unlocked, and hoped that I could spot him among lots of other small people, all clutching school bags and looking rather similar! Thanks to the snacks I had remembered from his father's school days, energy flowed to arms and legs and we all achieved the return journey with remarkable ease. It took me back more years than I can remember, but it was also interesting to note how many older people were collecting children. I didn't stand out but was one of a crowd.

Grandparent's day is on 3rd October and there are 14 million of us in the UK, or to put it another way, one adult churchgoer in every four is a grandparent. When my children were young their grandparents were retired with time on their hands and although they lived at some distance they could make frequent visits. Today half the grandparents in the UK are under 65, many are still working, and a staggering 64% of them care for their grandchildren for an average of 16 hours a week. This means that many grandparents have had to reduce their own working hours to care for their grandchildren. A huge commitment. Becoming a grandmother/father can take us by surprise, it did me and I have heard several prospective grandmothers echo my own feelings

"that I am not ready to be a granny". May I recommend "The Good Granny Guide" by Jane Fearnley-Whittingstall. It is a wonderfully entertaining insight into the joys and pitfalls of being a granny. It is terribly important to know for instance whether you rank as number one or number two granny, and offers help with the most difficult task of all.... which is to keep your mouth shut tight, even if you are itching to offer advice.

Changes in society are a significant concern for many grandparents. Issues such as a relaxed attitude to discipline, and the amount of time spent on computers are real worries. The generation gap seems enormous at such times. Some schools though offer us grandparents a chance to learn new techniques such as computer skills. However it can work both ways. Often a story about when Grandad was a young boy can be a memorable history lesson and hearing something of their grandparents' world can help bridge the generation gap for the children. It can be a problem for Christian grandparents, who are concerned about passing on their faith, but there are opportunities, we can share our experiences, read a bedtime bible story, and answer questions when asked. Most of all we can pray for them. They might even be allowed to come to church when on a family visit.

Despite the lack of energy being a grandparent can be an enjoyable experience. When it becomes more of a chore then there are agencies that can help. The Church Army is running conferences this autumn on grandparenting, in an effort to sustain grandparents and the Grandparents Association also runs support groups. Well I must have done a good job; I have been booked for a couple more school runs!

BENEFICE

ALL SOULS DAY

Remembering Precious People.

This is the service when we remember before God those of our family & friends who have died. If you would like me to remember a loved one who has died in 2010 please let me have their name by the 31st October, and I will add them to the list from previous years. You are most welcome to attend the service of readings, hymns and prayers and there will also be an opportunity during the service to light a candle.

DIANA GARDINER

Diana, who was recently selected to train as a Reader (a lay Minister with the Bishop's licence to preach), has started her training. Much of the 3 years will be spent in academic study, but there is also a practical side and from time to time you will see Diana leave her place in the choir and lead intercessions, read lessons, lead services and eventually preach as part of her training. She will also be involved in the pastoral side of parish life, not just in the village of Playford where she lives, but also in Great. & Little. Bealings as well as Culpho. Please keep Diana in your prayers as she journeys through this demanding course.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Norman Porter who managed to visit 42 churches between 9am and 5pm as part of the Historic Churches cycle ride on 13th September.

ANGELA COBBOLD HALL

UPDATE

A very big THANK-YOU to everyone who supported the Sunday 'Cream Teas' during August. We raised over £400, to be shared between the Hall Fund and children's charities working in areas affected by recent floods. Thank – you also to everyone who has contributed and bought goods from the 'Just Local Stall' – the monies raised go a long way to covering the cost of 'consumables' used in the hall (cleaning materials etc.).

Table Top / Coffee Shop

As these have not been as successful as hoped, we have decided to have one 'Christmas Sale' on Saturday 27 November – any ideas, offers of help with advertising etc. would be gratefully received! Any queries or suggestions to Vicki Carr 01473 620213.

SUFFOLK SINGERS

Suffolk Singers are running a Choral Workshop on Saturday 9th October at St Michael's Church, Framlingham 10 am to 4 pm. Everyone is welcome to join us. The workshop will be under the direction of Claire Weston and will be based on Haydn's Little Organ Mass, a short mass of about 20 minutes. There will be rehearsals in the separate vocal parts in the morning and we will come together to rehearse in the afternoon, after which there will be a performance. We will have both organ (organist John Hutchings) and a small group of strings to complete the performance. The price is £15 for adults and £10 for those aged under 19. The Ipswich Co-operative Society is sponsoring this event and this enables us to offer the first 20 places for under 19s FREE. It will be helpful if participants have some previous experience of singing with a choir or reading music. Participants will be sent copies of the music in advance. The Little Organ Mass is a lesser known but beautiful piece of music and the workshop should be a popular and enjoyable event. Bookings are now open.

Please ring Alison Bestow

01473 625070 or email

alison.bestow@btinternet.com to reserve a place. Places can be reserved now, and paid for at the beginning of October.

GONDOLIERS – IPSWICH G&S ON TOUR!

For the first time in their 80 year history, Ipswich Gilbert & Sullivan Society are this year presenting their annual stage show in both Woodbridge and Bury St Edmunds.

The Gondoliers, with words and music by the famous duo WS Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, marks the Society's 80th anniversary this year as a repeat of the opening show of 1930 - however, this version will be a modern take on the classic operetta; the story remains the same and the well-loved songs and melodies are all there, but you'll find some interesting parallels and up-dated jokes amongst Gilbert's own comedy. The story is set in Venice where two brothers live, Marco and Giuseppe. They are happy being gondoliers until one day an imposing stranger announces they are not, in fact, brothers but that one of them is the only son-and-heir of the late king of Baratara. Precisely which of the brothers is a king and which a gondolier is unfortunately a mystery. It is doubly inconvenient when they discover that the king, whichever he is, was married in infancy to the daughter of a Spanish duke - as only half an hour earlier, the brothers were both married to two local Venetian girls. Being forced to leave their new wives behind, the gondoliers go off to Baratara, set up a republican kingdom, where all are equal, and they reign in a coalition government - but surely this can't go on for ever?

HOW TO AVOID ROGUE TRADERS

Suffolk Trading Standards has circulated a note about rogue traders and their principal advice is:-

To avoid becoming a victim of Rogue
Traders, follow these simple steps

Never agree to have work done by somebody who is just passing or take their word that it needs to be done at all.
Never pay for work before it is completed.

Do not accept any offer from them to drive you to the bank to withdraw money.

If you need work done, then contact
Trading Standards Suffolk Trusted
Trader Scheme by phone 01473
265758 or on the internet

To combat Rogue Traders Suffolk Trading Standards have now launched their accredited trader scheme, Suffolk Trusted Trader. Not only can consumers search online but they can call Trading Standards to receive details of a member of Trusted Trader. The service is completely free to consumers, allowing Suffolk residents to find a trader they can rely on.

BEALINGS

PLANT SALE 2011

As we write these notes our Harvest Services are in full swing and our gardens are getting that end of season look.

October in the garden means dividing those large clumps of perennials, preparing ground for new plants and taking cuttings of your favourites. There will be surplus plants and we ask that you remember the Bealings Plant Sale on April 16th next year and pop some of those plants into pots so that they will have time to grow on through the coming months ready for next year's Sale. There are plenty of empty plant pots of all sizes at 7 Richards Drive, Lt. Bealings (just phone 01473 610219) Our Plant Sale continues to be a great success and with your help and enthusiasm we hope to make sure that it thrives and grows each year. We had given some thought to switching the date to the weekend after Easter (30th April), following suggestions from those who thought the 16th might be a bit early for having seedlings ready. We do understand the predicament, but hope that a less severe winter than last year, and the fact that it is only 8 days earlier than this year, when we did manage to produce a wonderful array of plants, despite the prolonged Winter, will allow us to stick with the 16th, and retain our pre-eminence in the local Plant Sale hierarchy.

WI

Fortified by a tasty lunch of home-made quiche, salad and new potatoes, then an opportunity to sign up for future events, members settled for the September meeting of Bealings WI. Suffolk WI calendars were available; especially interesting with the picture for March 2011 painted by Bealings member Rosalind Fleck. An informal theatre group has enjoyed local entertainment, with more events planned. Knitted blankets squares are still needed and several completed blankets have been delivered to Tools With a Mission. The Institute plans to collect broken and redundant jewellery to support Heart

Research Charity and used postage stamps for the EACH Tree House Appeal. The speaker, Mrs Jane Parker, a Registrar, gave a fascinating insight of her work. There are six Registry Offices throughout Suffolk and over 90 venues for civil ceremonies. With the current trend for weddings in hotels and historic houses there are many busy occasions with a Registrar dashing to different venues; 2pm on Saturdays in July, August and September being popular times. A quiz 'Hatched, Matched and Dispatched' brought an excellent talk to a close.

GREAT BEALINGS

ST MARY'S

Not much of a problem this month with the theme for the preamble. The Pope's visit has thrust the question of religion to the top of the conversational agenda. Whether or not one is catholic, indeed, whether or not one is Christian, the fact that there has been a more-or less-civilised debate about relative values – the values of faith, the values of secularity and the way in which they interrelate and can be inter-dependent, is something that we should welcome. I suspect that most people found the Pope's visit of greater interest than they had expected. Certainly the tens of thousands of Roman Catholics who greeted him showed great solidarity, respect, and, indeed, love, whatever contrary message the protesters of various shades may have been trying to convey. The voice of religion has been heard more loudly in recent weeks, and its case has been well advocated.

LOOKING BACK

U3A VISITS

We have welcomed two parties of U3A visitors in the past month. Both groups seem to have enjoyed their visits. They were given a talk on the history of the church and then looked around the treasures of the church. As ever, the wood carvings attract particular attention and admiration. One interesting comment to emerge was that the Seckford memorial can surely not, in its entirety, date back to Tudor times – the central feature, with the coat of arms, may well do, but the surround looks decidedly neo-classical, particularly the Doric columns and pediment (the triangular form at the top of the monument) – any further opinions welcomed. Such visitors challenge the uncertain architectural knowledge of your churchwarden.

HISTORIC CHURCHES CYCLE RIDE

This took place on Saturday September 11th. Unfortunately it clashed with a number of other events, such as school speech days, so the number of participants was severely limited. We did, however, have a very full turn-out of church-sitters, so sincere thanks to them for playing their part in welcoming visitors. Your churchwarden is grateful to a number of sponsors, and, suitably spurred on, managed to visit over 40 churches. Any retrospective sponsorship would be greatly appreciated as it would help to boost the Great Bealings total, which is looking a bit on the thin side. 50% of the money raised comes back to our own church, the other 50% to wider use across Suffolk churches. The day coincided with Heritage Open Day, so many churches in Ipswich were open, and, encouragingly filled with people. There are some real treasures to be discovered –and it is good for one's urban traffic skills to learn where the cycle lanes are and how to use them. Think about it next year, maybe.....? Probably.....?..... Definitely.....?

AND FORWARD.....

HARVEST FESTIVAL SONGS OF PRAISE – SUNDAY OCTOBER 3RD AT 4-00 PM

Just 24 hours left before our Harvest Festival Songs of Praise. We could probably accommodate one or two last minute guests at the barbecue afterwards, but you would have to come armed with a contribution to the food. Of course, attendance at the service itself is totally open and independent of the barbecue. If you do have any last minute change of mind, please telephone Norman or Virginia Porter on 01473 735565.

MEMORIAL SERVICE –PEGGY HONORE - TUESDAY NOVEMBER 9TH

We were saddened to hear of the death, in early September, of Peggy Honore. Peggy had lived a full life, was well into her 90s, and, almost to the end, maintained a feistily sturdy independence. For many years she lived in "Acorns", in Orchard Rise, off Lower Street, and was a stalwart supporter of the church, serving on various rotas and playing a full part in the life of the village. She had quite recently moved away and into a home closer to her son, Antony. She was the widow of Ted Honore, who died a number of years ago. The Cedar of Lebanon in the churchyard is dedicated to his memory –he had been curator of the forests of Kenya, so was a dedicated arboriculturalist. A memorial service for Peggy will take place on Tuesday Nov 9th in the church.

CONCERTS

Woodbridge Excelsior Band - in the church at 7-30 pm on Saturday 6th November.

Initial publicity for this has already been launched and ticket orders are coming in. Do please support us in our invitation to The Excelsior Band to play for us. Proceeds will be devoted to the Great Bealings Organ Fund –but that will not prevent us from offering generous refreshments during the interval. You will remember that tickets are priced at £7 for adults and £3-50 for children.

Tickets are available from Norman Porter. Cheques payable to St Mary's Church, Great Bealings, please.

Kertesz String Quartet – Saturday 20th November at 7-30 pm. Annesley. Many will remember with pleasure the concert given last year in Annesley by members of the Brook Street Band, one of whose members is Farran Scott (Douse) who lives in Barn Pigtle on Boot Street. We are delighted to announce that Farran, with the kind support and cooperation of Chris and Judy Chestnutt, has offered us the chance of another concert in Annesley. This is not just any old concert. We shall actually be privileged to witness the birth and the launch of a new string quartet, The Kertesz String Quartet. It will be their inaugural appearance –a special privilege. The quartet consists of professional musicians playing on period instruments. They will be recreating the sound world of 18th century Vienna, and playing some of the most famous string quartet repertoire, with pieces by Haydn and Mozart. Tickets are priced at £10, to include a glass of wine. Proceeds will be donated to Great Bealings Organ Fund –readers may remember that a major refurbishment is booked for next Easter. Ticket numbers are necessarily limited so you are advised to make contact as soon as possible with Farran (01473 735565) or with Norman Porter (01473 735565) who will also have tickets available.

QUINQUENNIAL INSPECTION

It came as something of a nasty surprise to be reminded that the next inspection was due in late September. Expenditure in the last couple of years has had to be restrained, with the Parish Quota taking its toll and the effects of the recession having impacted on our finances. We are broadly confident that not too many “nasties” will be thrown up, but these occasions are always faced with some trepidation.

CHURCHYARD WORKING PARTY – SATURDAY OCTOBER 2ND

Thanks to all those who signed up to help with clearing the churchyard for winter. The date of the working party morning coincides with the delivery of this magazine, so we do not yet know the results, or, even, if the weather favoured the completion of the various tasks.

VANDALISM

We are sad to report that what appeared to be an accident now turns out to have been deliberate. The copper beech planted at the edge of the church car park, by kind permission of the Nestlings and maintained by them, appears to have been deliberately sawn before being broken off. There is further evidence that cattle may have been released on to the road, posing serious problems of safety for road users. We do urge all villagers to maintain a high level of vigilance and to notify the police and/or a member of the PCC is they notice suspicious behaviour. We are cheered to see the frequent signature of local police patrols in our Visitors’ Book, so we are not alone in maintaining such a vigil.

MAINTENANCE

A two-man team from Elix visited the church on August 25th and spent all morning completely clearing out all the drains and gutters. They did a very thorough job. House-owners will know only too well how thorough completion of these tasks is an essential way of keeping damp problems at bay.

SUFFOLK HISTORIC CHURCHES TRUST

Saturday 11 September saw many visitors to All Saints church, either on foot or on bikes. They were taking part in the Suffolk Historic Churches Trust Annual Bicycle Ride. This event has been taking place annually since 1974 and has raised over £3 million for the Trust. This enables them to make grants to churches and chapels throughout Suffolk which are in need of urgent repairs. Our own church, All Saints, received a grant from them only a few years ago, to help with repairs after dry rot appeared.

Thank you to all those who so generously sponsored me for my walk around our four churches. It was a treat to see our countryside in such good shape, the farmers harvesting and preparing the land for the autumn and winter.

HARVEST

The following day, 12 September, we gathered in church to enjoy all our favourite harvest hymns at the Harvest Songs of Praise service. Many thanks to those who brought flowers and produce and to those who decorated the church for our festival.

This was followed by a delicious harvest lunch at the ACH, where nearly 40 of us sat down to a traditional harvest spread. It was a busy weekend, but so good to see so much activity around our church.

LET THERE BE LIGHT!

On Saturday 21 August, the lights shone "In memory of Mike Slim – forever by our sides". Melanie Hollinshead of Holly Rise remembered her father John, who died a year ago on Monday 30 August. Peter Kidd and family sponsored the lights on Sunday 5 September and Monday 7 September, in memory of a much loved and respected Gladys Kidd, who would have celebrated a 100th birthday on Monday 6 September. Also on the 6th at Parkside Cottage, another birthday for Joan Moon was a happy reason for the lights. All Saints was floodlit on Wednesday 8 September in memory of Bea Upson, mother of Ferial Evans – "We all have fond memories of her. She had such a vibrant personality".

Lisa and Justin Miller celebrated their 6th wedding anniversary on Saturday 11 September. Also, on the 11th, the lights shone for the 1st birthday of Amelie May Heble, daughter of Fleur Heble and delightful grand daughter of Peter and Eileen Kidd, in Zurich, Switzerland. On Saturday 25 September, the lights shone for the birthday of Robert Perkins OBE, in whose memory the floodlighting was installed in 1989. Mrs Jean Perkins has been a faithful and generous supporter of the lights on the 25th and over the Christmas season since the scheme was introduced in 1991.

A big vote of thanks goes to all supporters of the scheme – no queuing necessary just note your special day in this special way! £5 or cheque payable to Little Bealings PCC to Parkside Cottage 01473 626845.

PARISH COUNCIL

Notes from the Little Bealings Parish Council Meeting held on 13 September 2010

PARISH PLAN ACTIONS

The views of the other Parish Councils in the Joint Parish Plan were awaited in respect of the Village Hall Trust's request for the release of the parish's share of the remaining funding for the installation of glass recycling bins and/or lighting improvements at Bealings

Village Hall. The Village Hall Management Committee (VHMC) now preferred to use the funding to install a lamp post and infra-red light in the dark corner of the car park, especially as payments for recycled glass had been reduced; it would take 10 years to recoup the initial outlay incurred in providing a plinth, fencing and bins. The Parish Plan data would be interrogated to ascertain parishioners' preference for lighting or recycling facilities. The Parish Council's powers to install lighting in public places would be researched. The VHMC was also consulting a local resident on the lighting.

PLANNING

Tim Baker of R & P Baker, the owners of the redundant Grove Farm buildings, had advised the Council that they were in discussions with SCDC over a requirement for the site to be allocated for housing development in the local plan before any planning application would be considered. In consequence they were not in a position to prepare any plans for consideration.

APPLICATIONS

C10/1732: Hawkridge, Playford Road, Little Bealings

Erection of new detached open fronted garage and new glazed porch, formation of gable end and vertical boarded finish to bungalow: SCDC had approved this application.

C10/0554: Finches Hill, The Street – Revised: Build enclosed swimming pool and enclosure on land forming part of plot at present listed as use. Change use to domestic for whole site. Build bund no more than 2m high to the north of the enclosure from the spoil excavated from the pool site. SCDC had been asked to advise on the works being undertaken at the property following the withdrawal of this application.

VILLAGE PHYSICAL LIMITS BOUNDARY (PLB)

Keith Beaumont reported on an information evening arranged by SCDC. It was agreed to concur with SCDC's suggestion that an area of the parish designated an Area to be Protected from Development should be removed from the PLB and other small changes made to rationalise the boundary. There was a presumption against development outside the PLB, with some exceptions.

POLICE

No police representative had been able to attend. There had been one reported crime in the parish, a fraud involving cold call telephoning. The future direction of the 12PT group and its links to SNT priorities and processes would be considered at a meeting on 29 October.

BEALINGS SCHOOL PARKING

A copy of the School Travel Plan had been received from the School, but it was out of date and beyond its review date of March 2009. It was agreed to ask the School to update the Plan, especially acknowledging that parking for parents was now provided at the Village Hall. No comments on raising funds to deal with on-going surface repair of the car park had been received. Suffolk ACRE was continuing to advise the VHMC in respect of funding sources.

HIGHWAYS:

Mr Ball had finished the footpath cutting for the year within SCC's agreed budget and SCC had commented that the paths were in good order. The Fynn Valley footpath signpost and pot holes in Holly Lane/The Street had been reported for repair. SCC would be asked to comment on the standard of the resurfacing work in Playford Road. Works by SCC to improve the Church and Playing Field footpaths were awaited.

FINANCE

The external auditors had completed the audit for 2009/10 and not raised any matters of concern. The annual return was approved and the end of the audit would be advertised as required. Cheques were signed for Mr Ball for footpath cutting and for the Parish Council's insurance policy premium. It was agreed not to renew the subscription to the Local Councils Update publication.

CORRESPONDENCE

Information from SCC on Trusted Traders had been added to the Council's website

DATE OF NEXT MEETING

The next Parish Council meeting will be on Monday 15 November at 7.30pm in the Village Hall Committee Room. During the first 15 minutes of all Council meetings the public are welcome to raise any matters of concern with Councillors. The public may also speak for a maximum of 3 minutes on any item on the Agenda at the beginning of that item.

PLAYFORD

ST MARY'S

Playford's new cross .If you have been in the church recently you might have noticed that Playford has a lovely wooden cross on the altar. It has been given to us as a gift by Peter Gornall, husband of Margaret, Culpho's secretary. Thank you Peter, it is all the more special for being made especially for Playford.

Pauline

PCC

Our PCC met this month. Amongst the items discussed were thoughts on next year's Open Church Week and the progress on the building works. We are very much now in the hands of the builders but hopeful that work will start on the tower repairs on Monday 25th October. All relevant permissions have been obtained.

We held a coffee morning to coincide with the bike ride. The weather stayed fair for those cycling and for those of us manning the church with all those lovely cakes and fresh brewed coffee, it was hard but we managed it! Thank you everybody again for your support. Please let us know if you would like to host a coffee morning in the future.

Catherine Thornber has a sponsor sheet going for sweeping of the church steps. The monies raised are to go to Sam Baker who is planning to go to Africa or India as part of the Lasallian Developing world project. We are looking for sponsors and sweepers -or you can even do both! Please do support our young person as he needs to raise £1,300 by March and is working very hard towards this.

Our south window this harvest will be utilised for the collection of items that we can send out to the orphanage which is our chosen charity. We are looking for items that will enhance the learning of English, i.e. games, cards, flash word cards etc., they do not need to be new but do need to be in reasonable condition.

Soon it will be Christmas; carols, mince pies and mulled wine to name a couple of things to look forward to as the nights draw in. On this note a gentle reminder to look out for those who live alone; a cheery wave on a cold and frosty morning can make somebody's day.

A MORNING OUT WITH THE VICAR

Have you ever felt like you were entering into the Tardis on Dr Who, stepping into something unreal? Well I felt like this last Friday. Having normal parish business to discuss Pauline suggested as time was in short supply for us both, that I accompany her to look at a portrait that had been painted of her by local artist Reg Snook. While the name seemed slightly familiar, no real bells of recognition. So after a morning event at Playford church, I popped my basket into Pauline's car boot and off we went, heading towards Grundisburgh, chatting away and missing the turn off, having to do an about turn and head back to Grundisburgh. We then came to a dirt track, which we turned into, a matter of yes I think this is the way, well if you cannot believe your vicar who can you believe! There was a moment when we appeared to be in the middle of nowhere, a huge plastic oil type tank and a chicken house with live chickens roaming within, but nought else except old barns. If my faith wavered it was only for a moment Pauline whipped out the mobile phone, I'll phone him she said, good idea, mmmm.....I have his home number, he lives in Ipswich and cycles all the way here every day you know. Well we know people you know and after a brief chat with someone on Mr Snooks' home line after a little turn off into an opening from nowhere appeared Mr Reg Snook, very pleased to see us and most welcoming.

Follow me he said, so we did, now be careful he said there is a hornets nest, where? right there by the door, they are okay he said just don't annoy them, (who in their right mind would annoy one hornet, let alone about twenty of them I was secretly thinking.) Then.....like magic you step through this door of what seemed to be a wooden hut into this world of colour and people, portraits of local Grundisburgh folk, that's so and so I said, and look there's the late shop keeper, well look there's Claire the vicar from Grundisburgh! The list of people went on and on, further back we went, still more portraits until we came upon our very own priest Pauline looking grand in her robes and very distinguished. A wonderful picture which I am sure will give Pauline and her family years of pleasure. Could there be more....well yes there could. Stories from Reg, then pots and pots of chilli peppers, freshly picked and the most wonderful paintings of birds, the odd landscape. "What about you then?" he said, "thought about having your portrait painted?" "Me? no" I said, a little bashful, while thinking could I? Should I? I need to be better dressed. "They all say that" says Reg, "you look fine" said Pauline, "in fact typical Gina" she says! Well payback time I thought as I smiled for the camera, whilst thinking I wonder which wall I will adorn with this Portrait, the young of my family already I think I have eyes in the back of my head, wait till I am on the wall.

Could it get better, yes the final master pieces were about to be revealed, a trip into an outside barn dusty and in semi darkness, which lead into a area where a magnificent huge painting of George and the Dragon sat by the side of one of The Crucifixion. This painting takes your breath away. A discussion followed but my eyes were firmly fixed, on this painting which really needs to be hung up and displayed. I still feel this ripple of excitement when I think about my morning out with the Vicar, while you may not be able to have such company I do suggest if you have never been, do look up and visit Reg Snook's Gallery a real delight. fruit dessert, Everyone had fun roaming the garden trying to find the items for our Treasure Hunt. We then settled to a quiz prepared by Ursula. A most enjoyable and relaxing evening. In September our meeting saw all members attending. We had a talk by Miss Jenny McCombe " A Year in an Indian Orphanage". She had in recent years spent some considerable time helping in orphanages around the World. To enable her to do this she traded her skills teaching English for bed and board. She told us of the deprivation in these countries and how the children are so grateful for all that she could offer. We then had a short question and answer time.

Our next meeting in October will be a ghost walk in Ipswich, which should prove very unusual. We are hoping to stop and have a drink and sandwiches in a local and ghost friendly hostelry. On September 21st we shall be holding an extra social evening of crafts and cake. The next social will be on October 19th and it will be 'exploding boxes'.

May I take this opportunity to promote our 'PUMPKIN EXTRAVAGANZA', this will be held on October 23rd. We are having competitions for the young and older! Stalls and games. If you feel you would like to join in and have a pumpkin (or you can buy one). please keep your eyes open for the scarecrows that will be appearing around the village!!

ST.BOTOLPHS FLOODLIGHTS

On 6th.September our lights were lit by Peter & Margaret Gornall in loving memory of both their mothers, who are always in their thoughts. Jim & Brenda Foot sponsored the lights to celebrate their wedding anniversary on the 7th.September and again, on the 10th, to celebrate Brenda's birthday. Christine Pearce lit the church on the 19th.September to remember her dear friend, Clodagh Hayward.

Shirley Grey.

HARVEST CELEBRATIONS 18/19 SEPTEMBER

The Church celebrated the Harvest in fine style with a supper, a musical recital followed by an Evensong Service. The church looked impressive with products of the harvest, richly coloured floral displays and an abundance of replica, but authentic looking 'harvest mice'; all of which made the church look quite resplendent. Sincere thanks go to Sue Bruce, Libby Cooper and Chris Garnham for all their hard work in preparing the church prior to this eventful weekend.

On Saturday evening, the harvest was commemorated with traditional fayre; the food was beautifully presented and equally superb in taste. There was something for everyone and it was a most convivial and enjoyable evening. Grateful thanks are extended to Chris Pearce who co-ordinated the event and to John and Shirley Grey who, as always, provided us with a fine selection of raffle prizes. The celebrations continued into the weekend and at lunchtime on Sunday, we were entertained to a recital of English songs by soprano Mrs Carole King, who was accompanied on the piano by Jane Burn. The music was a celebration of works by famous composers which was wonderfully interpreted by Carole. The clarity and quality of her voice was such that it literally lit up the church and we are most appreciative of Carole, her husband who introduced and interpreted each piece, and to Jane for giving freely of their time. The Evensong Service, which celebrated the gathering of the harvest, followed the recital at 3 p.m. We were pleased to welcome the benefice choir, who accompanied the congregation in the traditional harvest hymns.

We are most grateful for all the support and donations received during what was a busy, but very enjoyable weekend of remembering and celebrating the harvest, which represents a very significant part of Culpho and the Suffolk heritage.

REMINDER

- ◆ May we please ask contributors to submit items using MS Word with Spelling set to English (UK) and font Arial size 9.
- ◆ Please also ensure that you check your contribution before you submit it using the 'Spelling and Grammar' facility. (press F7 !)
- ◆ When submitting 'posters', notices or advertisements please note that 'colour' should not be used because you will lose significant impact when it is transferred to grey scale/black and white.
- ◆ Similarly please test your item before sending it; if it contains too much illustration or detail remember that it will not always be effective when reduced to the magazine's A5 format.
- ◆ Please do not send items in .PDF format because this makes it very difficult to edit and adjust to our A5 format.
